The Line Up

Do I Have To Take Senior English?

Everyone has memories, whether they are of fun and fancy, frenzy and fury—or of a pop quiz in Government. In the 1960 Log, we have tried to capture the moments we'd like to live over, and some we'd rather not. Each recollection reminds us that time moves on, and the finality of our goal—Graduation—is advancing inevitably. We hope that future seniors will have as much satisfaction as we do in retracing our F. H. S. steps, and will have as many memories of their own.

Renewing Old Friendships

Moments of Frenzied Joy

Cheering Our Teams

In Special Recognition

Merely to pay tribute to a person because of his long tenure of duty seems unjustified. Length of service does not make for excellence. However, when that long tenure is distinguished by singleness of purpose, devotion to duty, unswerving loyalty and selfless interest in the school, it is most fitting to recognize the contribution.

Both Miss Cogswell and Mr. Kenney have made a significant impression on the spirit of Feitshans High School. Their influence has been appreciated by all of the students who have known them. They have worked diligently in the interest of our school and of our community.

Miss Elizabeth Cogswell joined the Feitshans staff in 1929, as an English and remedial reading instructor. Since 1944 she has been the dean of girls at Feitshans.

MISS ELIZABETH COGSWELL

MR. CHARLES KENNEY

Miss Cogswell regards each girl as an individual; she is a dedicated, thorough, and competent advisor and friend.

In addition to her many responsibilities at Feitshans, Miss Cogswell holds the position of assistant in religious education at First Methodist Church. Her commendable devotion to youth has always been apparent.

Teacher of law, government, and formerly of American History, Mr. Charles Kenney came to Feitshans in 1930. Since then he has combined a successful law practice with an inspiring teaching career. His originality and direct manner have made him a favorite with students and associates.

We, the 1960 Log Staff, express our sincere appreciation to these two outstanding members of the Feitshans faculty.

In Memoriam

H. LEALAND BARCLAY

Mr. Barclay was a capable and respected member of the F.H.S. faculty for a period of thirty-one years. In the Industrial Arts Department where he headed the printing shops, he was a careful and painstaking craftsman who upheld high standards for his students. He rendered many valuable services to the school and community through the hundreds of programs, brochures, and pamphlets that were prepared under his meticulous supervision.

Intensely loyal to the school, he was interested in his students and in all school activities. He was respected by both students and fellow teachers who will cherish many happy remembrances of their years of association with him.

Introducing . . .

The 1960 Log Staff

Eileen Cawley, Pat Michael, Sandy Patterson, Judy Kelly, Dick Russell, Rita Serena, Marybeth Housholder, Connie Conner, Dave Davenport, Joella Miller, and Judy Boyer.

As any staff member of the 1960 Log will readily tell you, WORK is involved in producing a yearbook. Money raising is always a paramount consideration and this year's staff did an excellent job by manning the concessions stands at the football field, soliciting advertising, (they nearly broke records in this department!) and selling subscriptions in order to pay for a "better" book. The business staff was headed by Marybeth Housholder whose constant reminders "we gotta get more ads, kids"—kept the staff humping.

Besides raising money, the inevitable planning of layouts, making picture assignments, identifying people, checking lists, writing copy, and reading proof took up a large portion of the daily yearbook period. Rita Serena as layout editor and Pat Michael, literary editor, formed a partnership to direct the activities. The girls were ably and loyally assisted in each of the various departments—clubs, special events, faculty, classes, activities and sports—by Judy Boyer, Eileen Cawley, Cynthia Conner, Judy Kelly, Joella Miller, and Sandy Patterson. Dick Russell, a first semester staff member, carried through second semester on a part-time basis to finish his work as sports editor. Dave Davenport was on the staff first semester.

MR. EARL WAX

The progress of Feitshans High School reflects the wisdom and administrative ability of Mr. Wax. Through his help and understanding, Feitshans has achieved high goals and is climbing on to still higher ones. Mr. Wax is a "friend indeed" to the student body and to our faculty as well. When many memories of our high school days have faded away, the 1960 Senior Class of F. H. S. will still remember—with great fondness our principal, Mr. Wax.

From conferences at registration time to speeches for the Senior Banquet, our deans have been good-humored, understanding, and helpful in every respect.

Students turn to these advisors for curriculum decisions, schedule adjustments, vocational guidance, and scholarship applications.

The Deans' understanding services coordinate the individual's need and the school's purpose.

MISS COGSWELL

MR. McQUEEN

This year's cheerleading squad combined neat appearance and agile ability to lead the fans of Foothills. Whether at a pep assembly or a basketball game, our school had a just reason to be proud of these girls. Chosen by a committee composed of teachers and students, the six squad members served their purpose well by encouraging the team and representing the school.

Led by All-City members Hiram Jackson, Dave Hale, and Bob Levine, the 1959 Flyers compiled a 4 and 5 record. Coach Marvin Schultz and his boys certainly had what might be called a heartbreaking season. The Flyers never lost by more than one touchdown in the five games they dropped.

The highlight of the season was the 19-6 drubbing of Lanphier, which was our only city win.

Things next year do not look so bright. With only four lettermen returning, Schultz will have to rely pretty heavily on his sophomores.

Sophomore Football

Led by Hott, Hayes, Irving, Patterson, Gurski, Walton, Williams and Ross, Dean Tillman's '59 sophomores enjoyed a fine season. The sophs swept the city title with a 3 and 0 record and were 6 and 1 overall, losing only to Eisenhower.

Injuries are called a coach's worst enemy, and Coach Bob Carpenter certainly had his share during the 59-60 season. The Flyers started strong, but after losing Truax to a bad knee, and having Walker turn up with a broken hand, things kind of slowed down. But even after the turning point, the boys showed flashes of considerable strength. Sparked by Hiram Jackson, All-City and Chicago Daily News All-Stater, and Loren Larsen, another All-City member who missed quite a few games due to illness, the boys piled up a 17 and 11 record.

The J.V. basketball team with a group of sharp shooters burning up the nets piled up seventeen wins to eleven losses. Not very tall, but with deft ball handling and team play, they overcame many teams with superior height.

Mr. Tillman is hopeful that the boys will continue their winning ways as they move up to the Varsity squad.

FLYERS WIN AT DISTRICT, SECTIONAL; ADVANCE TO STATE TOURNAMENT PLAY

Coach Bob Kyes' 1960 Flyers became the first undefeated team in any sport at Feitshans since the 1952 football eleven completed their streak of wins. The boys heaped further glory on themselves and their school as they became the first Feitshans hurlers to advance beyond district and regional play to enter the state tournament at Peoria. Opposed by York of Elmhurst, the Flyers were downed 3-1 in the BIG TIME for their first loss in 24 starts.

Led by the timely hitting of Glenn Davis, Jim Williams, Bill Merrill, and Lamont Irving and the spectacular pitching of Bill Cundiff, Dave Gurski and Don Collier, the boys rolled up 17 straight wins in regular season play.

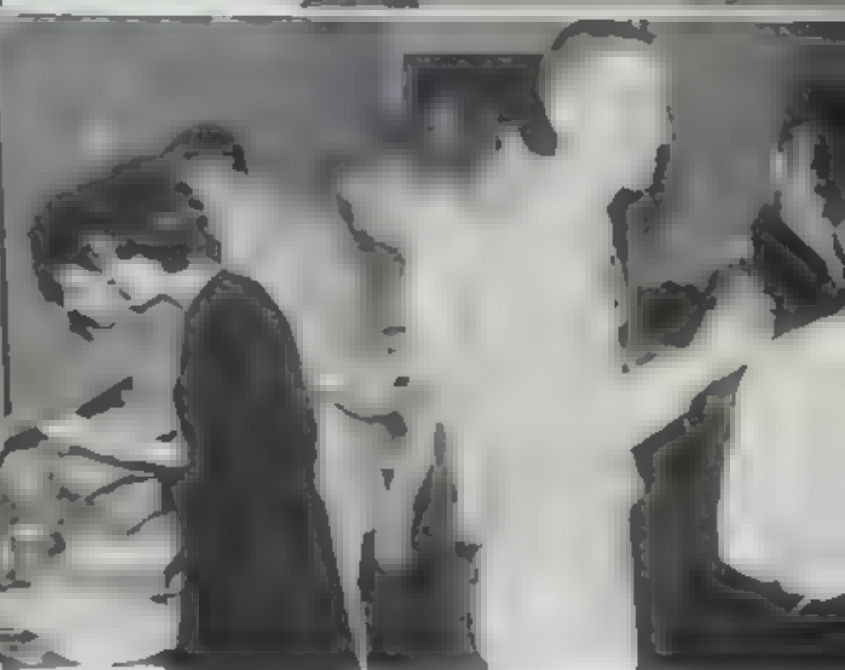

Must've been a rough season on star Jim Williams. Coach Kyes feeds the hurler at the Dave Watt banquet for the Flyers as Mr. Watt looks on.

The Student Council of Feitshans is an organization composed of four seniors, four juniors, four sophomores, four officers, and two auxiliary members. The council is a liaison between the student body and the administration.

Meetings are held regularly on Tuesday mornings. Over and above routine matters the Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance, the "Can and Coin" drive, and helped with the mechanics of the T.B. testing program. Officers for the year were Bert Gerger, president; Jan Hudson, vice-president; Sandy Yates, secretary; Grace Adloff, treasurer; and Herman Eifert, advisor.

Our Student Council is a member of the Intra-City Student Council, the Illinois Association of Student Councils, and the Pekin District of Student Councils.

What is Key Club? C. William Nelson, president of Key Club International, says: "Technically Key Club is a High School Boys Service Organization and is under the sponsorship, guidance, and direction of Kiwanis International. But Key Club is something more. It is the warm, burning feeling or the chill that runs up your spine or the human satisfaction that you receive from service. Key Club International incorporates into its members, humanness and humbleness. In Key Club, opportunities unlimited are offered and it is the duty of a Key Clubber to take advantage of these opportunities for the betterment of himself as well as for his school and community."

The F. H. S. Key Club has proved these words through service to our school and community. Officers were: John Waring, president; Al Lochbaum, vice-president; Donnie Miller, treasurer; Mr. Clyde McQueen, advisor.

Refreshments follow initiation.

"I solemnly swear . . ."

National Honor Society

F. H. S. is proud of its honor students. Students who have maintained a 4.5 point average in any academic subject are eligible for membership in the National Honor Society. These people were the guests of the Junior League at the Golden Laurel Banquet given for local Honor Society members.

Back Row: Alford Zick, Joe Mellugh, Lee Kane, Hiram Jackson, Norman Davis

Senior Committees

Pass the word "Committee meeting tomorrow morning at 8:00". Come over to my house Saturday afternoon and we can work on Prom decoration . . . Members of Prom, Graduation, Finance, and Veterans Committees planned the senior activities for the year. The senior class officers, along with one faculty member per committee were in charge of this group. The committees combined on several projects to make money for the Junior-Senior Prom, including selling sweat-shirts and pens listing the home basketball game schedule, and sponsoring a used jewelry sale and a variety show.

Future Teachers of America

Future Teachers of America is an organization for students in the three Springfield public high schools to promote their interest in teacher education.

Meeting once a month in the lounge at the Board of Education, the members hear lectures and see demonstrations pertaining to elementary education. Representatives from Feitsmans serving as officers are Helen Cawley, librarian, and Cynthia Conner, treasurer.

Distributive Education

The Distributive Education Club, under the advisorship of Miss White, is composed of seven members who successfully combine job experiences and classroom retelling instructions.

Each student learns from his particular job attitudes and principles which apply to his entire life. Experience and education combined make this a profitable course for students who plan to deal with people in their careers.

Diversified Occupations

Back Row: Bill Stupps, Mr. Wilbur. Third Row: Jerry
Clark, Mae Clark. Second Row: Gerald Serena, Ray Press-
ler. Front Row: Tom Lund, Jim Hurley, Roy Smith.

Designed to provide social activities and educative experience, the D.O. Club is an outgrowth of the Diversified Occupations class. These people attend classes only in the morning, using their afternoons, evenings, and often Saturdays to supplement their education by actual work experience.

This year's special events were an area meeting held in Beardstown, and the state meeting here in Springfield, where the group met in the House of Representatives' Chambers to conduct their business. Remembering the helpful guidance they receive on the job, the boys planned an Employer-Employee Dinner, inviting their employers as their guests.

Office Occupations

The purpose of O. O. is to promote fellowship and sociability. Meeting every morning from 8:00 to 9:30
A.M., the organization
aims to improve the clerical status of the members.
These girls work in various offices throughout the city in the afternoon. To climax the year the club had an Employer-Employee
Banquet to show appreciation to employers. The officers for this year were president, Mary Jo Eggleston; vice president, Judy Guenther; secretary, Betty
Jeffers; treasurer, Nancy
Steiner; reporters, Linda
Pierce and Jo Ann Jackson.

Back Row: Linda Jackson, Rose Charles, Barbara Charles, Karen Watts, Alice Steiner. Second Row: Mary Jo Eggleston, Linda Pierce, Dorothy Turner, Betty
Jeffers, Nancy Appligatz. First Row: Nancy Steiner, Judy Guenther, Phyllis LeVogue, Marleen Farrar, Bette Eddington, Paula Smith.

Ushers

These people willingly gave up seeing the biggest part of the F.H.S. home football games to usher in the reserved area at Memorial Stadium. Through their courtesy, the ushers make a favorable impression on visiting spectators. This group is under the able supervision of Mrs. Edith Wilson.

Y-Teens

Y-Teens is an organization composed of girls interested in helping their community and school, meeting new people, and having fun. The Y-Teenets meet on Tuesday evenings at the Y.W.C.A.

There many activities include money-raising projects, service projects, and social projects. This year the Y-Teens were successful in sending Rita Ann Serena to the National Y-Teen Convention in New York City.

Rita Ann also served as president of the organization, capably assisted by Jan Hudson, vice-president; Kathy Pavelick, treasurer; and Judy Kelly, secretary. The club was under the advisorship of Miss Leajeanne Tull.

Cafeteria Workers

The young people behind the scenes—they make our lunch hour run smoothly. Helping serve the hungry students and teachers, checking trays as the line moves, and cleaning the cafeteria for the fourth hour study hall are their main jobs. This group is under the capable direction of the school food service.

Lettermen's Club

The newly formed Lettermen's Club at F.H.S. is composed of all boys who have earned a letter in some sport.

Last fall the boys sold Flier pins and pennants. Many ambitious activities are being planned for the future.

Officers for this year were Glen Fitzgerald, president, Louis Barger, vice-president, and Dennie Miller, secretary, treasurer. Mr. McCoy, assistant coach, was advisor for the group.

Concessionaires

The concessionaires group is comprised of the Log Staff and a few loyal supporters of the yearbook. Don't think they weren't loyal to the team—glimpses of the action on the field were occasionally possible over the heads of hungry spectators! Besides operating the concession stand, these shivering students sold taffy apples in the stands during all the F.H.S. home football games. All proceeds went to make a better yearbook.

Pep Club

"Quit chomping popcorn and YELL!" This is the battle cry of F.H.S. Pep Clubbers. These loyal supporters inspired enthusiasm at basketball games throughout the winter. But these active girls planned and organized other projects, too, such as selling megaphones in the school corridor.

Officers for the year were Janice Kelly, president; Mary Beth Housholder, secretary, and Joella Miller, treasurer.

Library Assistants

The Library Assistants, under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Turner, kept the school library in working order. Among the varied assistant duties are checking books in and out, shelving novels and reference materials, and checking lists of study hall students spending their study time in the library. And, of course, there is always someone who needs help with his assignment.

In April, Kaaren Keltner and Judy Lulav served as pages at the State Library Conference, which was held in Springfield. All the library assistants at F.H.S. helped to arrange for this conference.

Office Assistants

"Get out of Mr. McQueen's candy and take this slip down to room 108!"

This is just one example of what our faithful office assistants do each day. Their duties consist of collecting attendance, running errands, getting out detention slips, and occasionally tracking down a teacher.

Under the direction of Mrs. Carl Wilson, these busy workers receive one-fourth of a credit each semester in return for sacrificing their study periods.

Bible Club

Meeting on Monday evenings after school, the Bible Club members watched films, produced skits, or listened to lectures about the Bible. The purpose of this group is to bring more young people to know Christ personally.

Many activities with other Bible groups and local Youth For Christ rallies provided variety and Christian fun.

Serving as president was Lenora Berry, assisted by Richard Chapman as vice-president, Laura Ward as secretary-treasurer, and Kay Snodgrass as reporter.

Las Amigas Y-Teens

The all city Las Amigas club, composed of Lanphier and Feitshans students, was very active this year. Activities included a Christmas party, Mardi Gras carnival, and a dance.

The officers were Maggie Crawford, president; Ellen Blake, vice-president; Dolores Burton, treasurer, and Sandra Kirk, chaplain.

Concert and

The F. H. S. Band added color and variety to our home football games by playing novelty numbers during the half-time intermission. This group joined the other city high school bands to give an excellent performance in the All-City Music Festival. The year was climaxed with a combination concert and lawn party.

Marching Band

RECIPE

- |                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| 1 A Cappella Choir | Dignity, refinement.                    |
| 1 Girls' Choir     | Charm, refreshment.                     |
| 1 Madrigal Group   | Animation, precision.                   |
| 2 Ensembles        | Boys' or Girls'(according to taste) |

Combine the above ingredients. Mix well, constantly stirring and mold into shape. Season well with good singing, lively spirit, and a wholesome attitude. Pour ingredients into a large-sized concert or several small programs. Garnish with choir robes, colorful costumes, or formal evening attire. Set in 217 for three years. Outcome—Feitshans Vocal Music Department.

All School Play

Blithe Spirit

What do you tell your living wife when the ghost of your first wife moves in? This was the problem that Charles Condomine faced in Feitshans' production of "Blithe Spirit" by Noel Coward on Friday night, May 13. Coward's play about the perils of a plural husband, after a spiritualist conjures up the ghost of his first wife, played successfully in the school auditorium to Feitshans students and their parents.

Charles Condomine, the comedy's novelist hero, played by John Waring, is a skeptic at a seance conducted by an eccentric medium (Rita Serena). His doubts are abolished by the appearance of a ghost in his home, the troublesome shade of Elvira, his first wife, portrayed by Joella Miller. Ruth (Margaret Nelson), the living wife, already resentful of Elvira's superior charms, is infuriated by the spirit's presence. Disembodied or not, Elvira must get out. Charles agrees heartily, but the medium who invoked her is not only unsuccessful in getting rid of the mischievous spirit, but eventually she raises the ghost of the second wife, accidentally done to death by the first.

Others in the cast were Dennie Miller as the stuffy Dr. Bradman, Janet Gardner as his literal minded wife, and Margaret Robertson as Edith, the clumsy, galloping maid. Russell Jaeger was the stage manager for the production.

Standing: Margaret Robertson, Sylvia Krump, Phil Ayer, Judy Boyer, Kathy Payelock, Sandra Patterson, Georgia Putnam, Dany Kelly, Marybeth Houshouser, Rita Ann Serena, Margaret Nelson, Sitting: Dennie Miller, Sandy Anders, Russell Jaeger, Mary Ann Gault, Mrs. Gotschalk, Jim Cooke, Marco Mattix, June Kelly, John Waring, Janet Gardner, Joella Miller

F. H. S. alumnae, faculty, and students joined numbers to produce a gala 1959 Homecoming. The "Return of the Fleet" was celebrated among palm fronds and nautical effects, while The Keynotes supplied music for dancing from the deck of an anchored ship. The dock rang with laughter and music throughout the evening of welcome and memories.

Front Row: Sandy Yates, Judy Reinmug, Faye Kruger.

THE CROWNING MOMENT
OF THE EVENING—
QUEEN JUDY REIGNS!

Carnival Candids

Remember the exotic hula dancers — the real gone rock 'n rollers — the confusing prattle of the old fashioned auctioneer?

Anyone who's anyone remembers the annual excitement of the F. H. S. Carnival. It's midway games, idiotic stunts, side-shows, fortune teller, variety acts—all add up to FUN.

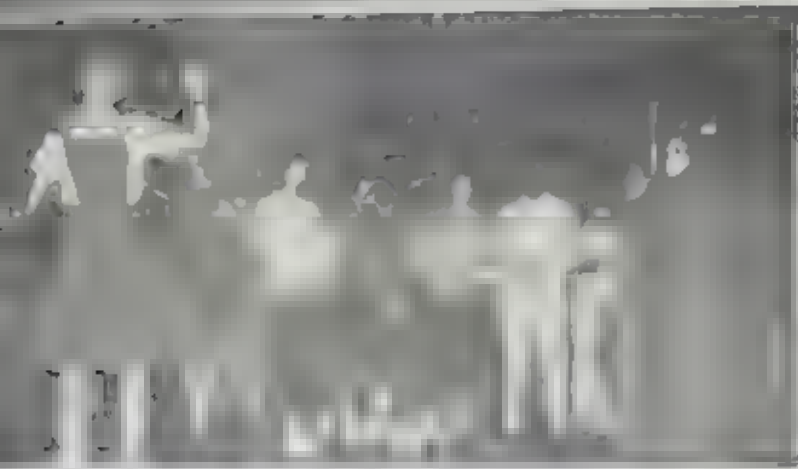

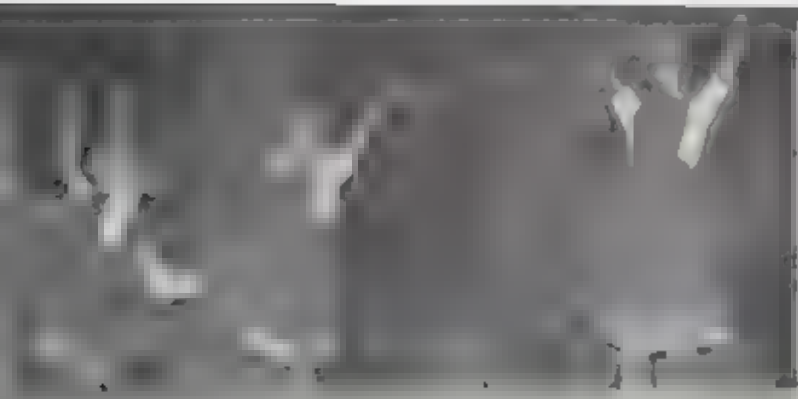

Getting ready for this yearly funfest is nearly as exciting as the night itself. Ask the Key Clubbers, who planned carefully their zany style show.

Finally, comes the main attraction, the anticipated moment when the Carnival Queen will be announced.

Moments to Remember

JEANNETTE SMITH

Carnival

Weeks of campaigning and hours of working go into the schedule of a queen candidate. Along with the personal triumph there reign the unity of friendship and loyalty of support.

The Carnival Queen is truly a figure of spirit and salesmanship and also of good will and sportsmanship.

The awed hush in the crowded auditorium announces the entrance of a queen—the 1939 Carnival Queen.

Queen

As her escort, Charles Theodor looks on with pride and approval, Jeannette is crowned by Sandra Linderman, 1958 Carnival Queen.

The pomp and splendor so characteristic of the annual carnival coronation is made possible by the active Fentshans Parent-Teacher Association. Committees from this group spend weeks planning down to the last minute detail the pageantry which creates annually a memorable experience for both participants and spectators.
